

MR MADIYAZHAGAN.MANIAM
MANAGEMENT CONSULTANT

Madi Maniam comes with 35 years of management experience from both local and international that includes multinational companies. His expertise ranges from manufacturing, petroleum industry, service industry and telecommunication industry, among others. He last served as a General Manager

His portfolio includes Supply Base Operation, Business Planning, International Marketing, Government Relationship, Logistics Operation, Project Management, Purchasing, Contracts, Material Management, Warehousing, Corporate Business Analysis, Executive Training, Process and Productivity Management and Turnaround.

The various operational experiences enabled him to add value to his forte in transformational management. He has a proven track record as consultant/trainer/mentor/coach in re-engineering organizations and production processes, such as planning and directing start-up as well as re-vamp operations.

His leadership qualities, wide network and communication skills enhance his roles in both the public and private sectors in Malaysia, ASEAN countries, Japan, Korea Taiwan and Papua New Guinea.

With an Economics degree from University Malaya, and supplemented by more than three decades of business and professional training and experience, he has an invaluable understanding of the local and global business environment which makes him as much sought after management consultant and trainer.