

MR ANTHONY DASS
ANALYST, INTER-PACIFIC SECURITIES SDN. BHD.

Anthony Dass started his career as an Economist with the Central Bank of Malaysia in 1988 and then as the Senior Economist. Thereafter, he became the Senior Economist at TA Securities, then as the Group Economist at KAF Discount. Later he was appointed as the Head of Research with FIMA Securities, followed by becoming the Head of Research with SJ Securities and thereafter as the Head of Research/Economist at Primoris Research.

He also worked as a part-time consultant with the United Nation under the United Nation Development Programme. He conducted a feasible study for the government of United Arab Emirates on the possibility of establishing the Dissemination Support System. He writes economics and finance articles for the Nihon Kenzai Shimbu, Japan. Currently he is working as Analyst at Inter-Pacific Securities Sdn. Bhd.