(This document consists of 27 pages including the cover page)

STUDY OUTLINE

MODULE 17: SECURITIES AND DERIVATIVES TRADING (RULES AND REGULATIONS)

This examination is designed to test a candidate's knowledge and understanding of the Malaysian capital market. This is one of the dual-activity examination modules intended to facilitate individuals who wish to apply for a Capital Markets Services Representative's Licence (CMSRL) to undertake both of the following regulated activities:

- Dealing in securities
- Dealing in derivatives.

It is also an alternate examination module to Module 6 - Stock Market & Securities Law (one of the examination modules to be passed by (i) individuals who intend to apply for a CMSRL for the regulated activity of dealing in securities; (ii) who intend to hold the position of Head of Operations, Head of Compliance or Compliance Officer in a firm which is a holder of a Capital Markets Services Licence (CMSL) for carrying on the business of dealing in securities; or (iii) who intend to be employees of registered persons who carry out the capital markets activities as stipulated in Item 1, Part 1 of Schedule 4 of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007) and to Module 16 - Rules and Regulations of Derivatives (one of the examination modules to be passed by (i) individuals who intend to apply for a CMSRL for the regulated activity of dealing in derivatives or dealing in derivatives restricted to Contract for Difference (CFD); or (ii) who intend to hold the position of Compliance Officer in a firm which is a holder of a CMSL for carrying on the business of dealing in derivatives or dealing in derivatives restricted to CFD). Candidates are advised to refer to the Licensing Handbook for the detailed combination of examinations required for each regulated activity.

Candidates are expected to possess good knowledge and understanding of the subject matter provided in this study outline and specified reference. In addition, candidates will be tested on the ability to analyse and apply the information at a basic level. It is estimated that this module will require a minimum of 160 hours of study time. Candidates may need less or more depending on the education background and work experience.

Candidates are expected to update themselves with the latest changes relevant to this examination as all questions will be continuously updated to reflect these changes. Candidates are permitted to refer to their own prescribed reference materials during the examination. Note that no prescribed reference materials will be provided by the Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC). The prescribed reference materials brought into the examinations by candidates are subject to the terms and conditions of SIDC, details of which are set out in the terms and conditions of the SC licensing examinations.

Candidates are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the SC licensing examination. Severe penalties will be taken against candidates for any misconduct during the examination.

At the end of this study outline are 10 sample questions used in the Module 17 examination. The samples provided do not in any way reflect the level of difficulty or the subject-matter distribution of the actual examination. They are merely intended to familiarise candidates with the styles of multiple-choice questions used in the examination.
