2. Commencement and Application

This Handbook sets out the requirements and guiding principles to SIDC's Certified Capital Market Professional (CCMP) Programmes as well as the structure, registration, learning journey, assessment, and fees applicable to interested candidates.

3. Definitions and Interpretations

In this Handbook, unless the subject or context requires otherwise, the terms hereinafter shall bear the following meanings respectively.

Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC) is the leading capital market learning and development solutions provider for industry participants in Malaysia and as further described in paragraph 4.1.

Conferment Committee (CC) is the committee responsible for approving the CCMP Programmes candidates' assessment results (that has a formative assessment component) and thereafter based on the results and fulfilment of requirements set out in paragraph 5, approve the conferment of the relevant designation.

Candidates mean individuals who have registered to undertake any of SIDC's CCMP.

Certified Capital Market Professional (CCMP) means SIDC's structured learning umbrella programmes as set out in paragraph 4.2, designed to assess and validate participants' proficiency and competence in specific knowledge, skills, and standards, culminating in the attainment of a certification.

Collaborative Learning means a component of certain CCMP Programmes which is based on a structured learning approach comprising facilitator-led sessions to discuss case studies and address real-life scenarios, fostering a practical understanding and application of relevant knowledge and skills, which includes a Formative Assessment in various forms as set out in paragraphs 5 and 8.

e-Learning means a structured programme or learning experience enabling participants to access the learning material at their convenience and own pace through SIDC's Learning and Assessment Management System (LAMS).

e-Webinar means an e-Learning webinar format featuring instructor led modules, enabling participants to access the learning material at their convenience and own pace through SIDC's Learning and Assessment Management System (LAMS).

Entry Requirement means the respective criteria candidates must meet to enrol into any of SIDC's CCMP Programmes as set out in paragraph 6.

Exemption means the provision that allows candidates who do not meet the Entry Requirements of the Programmes as set out in paragraph 6 to be exempted subject to the provisions made available by SIDC.

Fees mean the programme registration and Summative Assessment fees as set out in paragraph 7.

Formative Assessment means the assessment within the Collaborative Learning component of certain CCMP Programmes that focusses on active learning which includes participation, presentations, assignments based on case study and real-life scenarios, which encourages higher-order thinking and the application of knowledge and in varied contexts, which accounts for a percentage of the total passing mark for the CCMP Programme as set out in paragraph 8.5.

Proctor means the invigilator for online examinations/assessments.

Resit means the opportunity granted to a candidate who did not pass the CCMP Programme to retake the Summative Assessment component in accordance with the guidelines provided in paragraph 7.

Summative Assessment means the final, comprehensive assessment, represented by an examination, which accounts for a percentage of the total passing mark for the Programme.

Terms and Conditions mean the respective CCMP Programmes' Terms and Conditions.

Recorded Webinar means a recorded version of a webinar, allowing participants to review the content and discussions after the live session.

Webinar means a live, online learning session where participants can engage remotely with the trainer, facilitator and other attendees.

Workshop means an interactive learning session where participants can engage either physically (e-Webinar) or remotely (Webinar) with the trainer, facilitator and other attendees.

4. SIDC and Introduction to the CCMP Programmes

4.1 About the Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC)

4.1.1 The Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC) is the leading capital market learning and development solutions provider for industry participants in Malaysia, as well as for the growth and emerging markets that include market professionals, company directors, regulators and investors. Established in 1994 as the learning and development arm of the Securities Commission Malaysia (SC) and incorporated in 2007, SIDC has been a standard-bearer of quality and innovation for over three decades.

4.1.2 SIDC's involvement in the development of human capital for the Malaysian capital market is comprehensive and end-to-end. We work closely with the SC, other regulatory bodies, capital market institutions and associations through consultations and collaborations to:

- (i) establish competency standards for the industry; and
- (ii) design, develop and deliver training and programmes that upskills the competencies of participants and support market growth.

4.2 Introduction to the CCMP Programmes

4.2.1 Introduction to CCMP

- (i) The development of the CCMP Programmes, underscores a strategic response to the evolving demands and complexities within the capital markets industry. These programmes are designed to equip professionals with both theoretical knowledge and the practical skills necessary to excel in their respective areas.
- (ii) The CCMP is designed to build and validate the essential knowledge and skills needed in the capital markets industry. Professionals who achieve the CCMP demonstrate their ability to meet and at times exceed the industry's expected quality standards. Upon successful completion, they earn the CCMP designation, as awarded by SIDC, highlighting their capability to adapt to and manage the changing demands of the industry. Candidates are normally required to complete each level consecutively within the allocated time limit.
- (iii) Embarking on the CCMP journey represents a step towards gaining specialised knowledge and achieving professional growth. Candidates engage with customised learning modules tailored to meet the industry's unique challenges and requirements. Candidates are assessed on their proficiency across various capital market aspects through formative and summative evaluations, preparing them for future challenges.

4.2.2 The Programmes under the CCMP umbrella comprises the following:

- (i) CCMP-Dealing in Derivatives for Dealer's Representative (CCMP-D for Dealer's Representative)
- (ii) CCMP in Compliance
 - CCMP in Compliance 1 (CCMP-C1)
 - CCMP in Compliance 2 (CCMP-C2)
 - CCMP as Compliance Advocate (CCMP-CA)

- (iii) CCMP in Sustainable and Responsible Investment
 - CCMP in Sustainable and Responsible Investment 1 (CCMP-SRI1)
 - CCMP in Sustainable and Responsible Investment 2 (CCMP-SRI2)

4.2.3 Successful candidates will be entitled to use the specific designation, as set out in paragraph 4.2.2, after their name based on the fulfilment of the requirements and the award of the relevant CCMP Programme.

Sample designation for candidates:

- CCMP-D (for Dealer’s Representative)
John Smith, CCMP-D (for Dealer’s Representative)
- CCMP in Compliance
John Smith, CCMP-C1
- CCMP in Sustainable and Responsible Investment
John Simith, CCMP-SRI1

4.2.4 SIDC reserves the right to revoke the CCMP Programme designation granted to any individual due to breach of any Terms and Conditions of the CCMP Programmes, including any misconduct or unethical behaviour. Upon revocation, the individual must immediately cease the use of the CCMP designation in all professional representations, failing which SIDC may pursue legal action against the individual.

5. CCMP Framework

The CCMP is offered to any eligible individual enrolled under the Programmes. A candidate progresses through the CCMP framework, completing all required modules of the syllabus and fulfilling all the relevant requirements.

5.1 CCMP-D (for Dealer’s Representatives) Framework

5.1.1 The CCMP-D (for Dealer’s Representative) is a Programme for Capital Markets Services Representative’s License (CMSRL) holders for dealing in securities, who are seeking to be additionally licensed for dealing in derivatives.

- (ii) The Summative Assessment marks (SA Marks) will form a percentage of the Overall Passing Mark for the candidates to be conferred the relevant CCMP award as follows (SA Results Percentage):
 - CCMP-D (for Dealer's Representatives): 100%
 - CCMP-C1: 70%
 - CCMP-C2: 70%
 - CCMP-SRI1: 60%
 - CCMP-SRI2: 60%
- (iii) For CCMP-D (for Dealer's Representatives), the SA Marks will be made available via SIDC's LAMS three (3) working days after the completion of the examinations.
- (iv) For CCMP-C1, CCMP-C2, CCMP-SRI1 and CCMP-SRI2, the SA Marks will be made available via SIDC's LAMS, two (2) months after the completion of the examinations together with the Overall Marks as set out in paragraph 8.5.4. (For further provisions on examination results, please refer to the relevant CCMP Programme Terms and Conditions respectively).
- (v) The SA Marks are FINAL and a request to review or recheck the SA Marks will NOT be entertained.

8.5.3 Overall Results for the Conferment of the CCMP-D (for Dealer's Representatives) Award

- (i) As the CCMP-D only has the Summative Assessment component, the Passing Mark to determine the eligibility of the candidate to be awarded the CCMP-D is 70% of the 30 questions.

8.5.4 Overall Results for the Conferment of CCMP-C1 and CCMP-C2 Award

- (i) The Overall Passing Mark to determine the eligibility of the candidate to be awarded the CCMP-C1 and CCMP-C2 shall be calculated as follows:

The Overall Passing Mark will comprise the SA Marks plus FA Marks based on the following weightage:

- Seventy percent (70%) for the SA Marks
- Thirty percent (30%) for the FA Marks

- (ii) To determine the Overall Passing Mark according to the above weightage, the SA Marks and the FA Marks will be standardised as follows:

CCMP-C1

Standardised SA Marks Based on Seventy Percent (70%) Weightage

$$= (\text{SA Marks} / 0.6) \times 0.7$$

Standardised FA Marks Based on Thirty Percent (30%) Weightage

$$= (\text{FA Marks}) \times 0.3$$

CCMP-C2

Standardised SA Marks Based on Seventy Percent (70%) Weightage

$$= (\text{SA Marks}/0.4) \times 0.7$$

Standardised FA Marks Based on Thirty Percent (30%) Weightage

$$= (\text{FA Marks}) \times 0.3$$

- (iii) The Overall Passing Mark is seventy percent (70%) out of the Standardised SA Marks based on Seventy Percent (70%) Weightage plus FA Marks based on Thirty Percent (30%) Weightage.

SAMPLE

CCMP-C1

	Date	Total Marks
Formative Assessment (collaborative learning)	19 October 202X	14%
Summative Assessment	12 October 202X	59%
	Total	73%*
	Result	Pass

Passing mark = 70%*

CCMP-C2

	Date	Total Marks
Formative Assessment (collaborative learning)	19 May 202X	13%
Summative Assessment	12 May 202X	64%
	Total	77%*

Passing mark = 70%*

- (iv) Subject to conferment of the respective award to be decided by the Conferment Committee (CC), the Overall Marks will be made available via SIDC's LAMS two (2) months after the completion of the examinations as set out in paragraph 8.5.2.
- (v) The e-Result Slip contains a QR code. Those who scan the QR code will be brought to the SIDC e-Result 'verification' page which displays the candidate's details (Name, Identity Card Number/Passport Number, examination date, examination module and examination result).

8.5.5 Overall Passing Mark for the Conferment of CCMP-SRI1 and CCMP-SRI2 Awards

- (i) The Overall Passing Mark to determine the eligibility of the candidate to be awarded the CCMP-SRI1 and CCMP-SRI2 shall be calculated as follows:

The Overall Passing Mark will comprise the SA Marks plus FA Marks based on the following weightage:

- Sixty percent (60%) for the SA Marks
- Forty percent (40%) for the FA Marks

(ii) To determine the Overall Passing Mark according to the above weightage, the SA Marks and the FA Marks will be standardised as follows:

CCMP-SRI1

Standardised SA Marks Based on Seventy Percent (60%) Weightage

$$= (\text{SA Marks}/0.6) \times 0.6$$

Standardised FA Marks Based on Thirty Percent (40%) Weightage

$$= (\text{FA Marks}) \times 0.4$$

CCMP-SRI2

Standardised SA Marks Based on Seventy Percent (60%) Weightage

$$= (\text{SA Marks}/0.6) \times 0.6$$

Standardised FA Marks Based on Thirty Percent (40%) Weightage

$$= (\text{FA Marks}) \times 0.4$$

(iii) The Overall Passing Mark is sixty percent (60%) out of the Standardised SA Marks based on Sixty Percent (60%) Weightage plus FA Marks based on Forty Percent (40%) Weightage.

- (iii) Subject to conferment of the respective award to be decided by the Conferment Committee (CC), the Overall Marks will be made available via SIDC's LAMS two (2) months after the completion of the examinations as set out in paragraph 8.5.2.
- (iv) The e-Result Slip contains a QR code. Those who scan the QR code will be brought to the SIDC e-Result 'verification' page which displays the candidate's details (Name, Identity Card Number / Passport Number, examination date, examination module and examination result).

8.6 Deferment of CCMP Components

- 8.6.1 Candidates are not allowed to defer the scheduled CCMP Components except in instances involving extenuating circumstances listed under paragraph 8.6.2. The deferment allowed in paragraph 8.6 is only applicable for the Collaborative Learning or Summative Assessment components.
- 8.6.2 Deferment of the Collaborative Learning or Summative Assessment components will be granted solely under the following extenuating circumstances:
 - (i) Medical reason; or
 - (ii) Death of an immediate family member (spouse, child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, brother or sister only).
- 8.6.3 The application for deferment is subject to a processing fee of RM100 and all applications must include the relevant supporting documents which shall be submitted to AssessmentSecretariat@sidc.com.my. Applications without relevant supporting documents will not be entertained. The decision to grant or deny the extension application rests solely with SIDC.
- 8.6.4 For medical reason, application must be made within three (3) full working days (excluding weekends and public holidays) from the date of the webinar or examination. Candidates MUST provide a scanned copy of the medical certificate in their application.
- 8.6.5 In the event of death of an immediate family member occurring within seven (7) days prior to the webinar or examination date, the candidate is allowed to defer the webinar or examination to another date. All the following documents must be received by SIDC via email at AssessmentSecretariat@sidc.com.my within five (5) full working days from the date of the webinar or examination:
 - (i) A scanned copy of the death certificate;
 - (ii) A written notice from the candidate indicating the relationship between the candidate and the deceased.
- 8.6.6 Deferment by SIDC is subject to seat availability, adhering to a first-come-first-served policy, and contingent upon successful completion of the relevant fee payment. For specific programme dates when these options are available, candidates are advised to consult the respective CCMP Programmes Calendar in www.sidc.com.my.

8.7 Resit

- 8.7.1 Applicable for candidates who have registered and completed the CCMP Programmes with a Summative Assessment component but failed to be awarded the CCMP. Resitting is subject to registration and payment of the relevant fees set out in paragraph 7 and other applicable terms and conditions.
- 8.7.2 Resitting is subject to the relevant CCMP validity period as mentioned of this Handbook and seat availability, adhering to a first-come-first-served policy, and contingent upon successful completion of the relevant fee payment. For specific programme dates when these options are available, candidates are advised to consult the CCMP Calendar in www.sidc.com.my
- 8.7.3 Candidates are permitted to resit the CCMP examination within one (1) year from the date of receiving their examination results. Failure to resit the examination within this period will require the candidate to re-enroll in the entire programme.

8.8 Code of Conduct

- 8.8.1 All candidates are expected to display the highest standards of professionalism and ethical conduct, comply with relevant laws and regulations and maintain the reputation of the compliance profession. Failure to do so may result in SIDC taking necessary action against the candidates, including, but not limited to, instituting disciplinary action, terminating their registration and access to the CCMP Programme and/or revoking the award and relevant designation attached to such award.
- 8.8.2 To help candidates recognise and maintain these high standards of behaviour, SIDC has laid out the refer to Clause 7 on Remote Proctored Examinations and Clause 11 on Offences & Disciplinary Action in the relevant Terms and Conditions of the CCMP Programme, which candidates are expected to follow.

8.9 Others

- 8.9.1 CPE points maybe claimed upon fulfilment of CPE requirements as stated in Chapter 8 of the Licensing Handbook and Guidelines on Compliance with the CPE Requirements.
- 8.9.2 Candidates are subject to the provisions of this Handbook, which shall form part of the Terms and Conditions of the CCMP Programme. In the case of any inconsistencies between the Terms and Conditions of the CCMP Programme and the Handbook, then the provisions of the Terms and Conditions shall prevail.
- 8.9.3 All content and materials in this Handbook are current as at the date of publication and subject to change without notice.
